COMPANY BACKGROUND / HISTORY

Ates Tugla Refractory Bricks, Castables & Mortars, Ceramic Fiber Insulation Materials

Since 1977, our company has been providing refractory materials (fire bricks) for industries like glass, ceramic, iron and steel manufacturing plants. At the same time, we have been exporting to many countries in many regions like Europe, Africa, Middle East and North America.

On your request, according to your sample or drawing supplied, we produce special and shaped refractories in time. Depending on your application and working temperature, we recommend the best refractory for your requirements.
