PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Glass machinery is our main product, its production condition is relatively difficult, such as high temperature, noisy, high labor intensity. We devote ourselves to research and develop glass machines, continuously improve equipment automation degree and decrease the workforces. According to different products and production processes, we can design and make dedicated equipment to satisfy different needs of customers.

With professional technical team, digital production system, and the use of international first-line brand automation components, we can guarantee our equipment get ahead in the suitability of the glass process and stability and advancement of facility. Especially in the whole glass production line, we have more advantages.
