Marketing

For any company selling a product, the concepts of marketing and sales are very important as they can mean the difference between success and failure. Marketing is a longer concept than sales and relates to forward looking strategies to understand customer needs, influence customer perceptions, and identify how a company can capitalize on that. The end result of the marketing process is making sales easier.

Consultancy

GMC gives professional or technical advice to help you to build your new glass factory, to sell your used and new machines, to sell your products, to find your machines or anything else.
