PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

High quality, high-yielding and elegant

Three advantages that make the difference: We offer quality from German production, our solar power systems achieve maximum yields even in hot locations, and the modules highly distinctive design – anthracite with pinstripes – enhances buildings and enables the modules to be unobtrusively integrated into the architecture.

Solar modules

Soltecture offers solar modules tailor-made for solar construction. Regardless whether you want to use building-integrated or rack-mounted systems, roof or facade systems, laminates or framed modules, here you can find easy-to-install modules for all your needs for buildings and much more. »

Systems and components

When all components in a solar power system are perfectly matched to one another and are of the highest quality, Soltecture modules work to their full capacity. We therefore offer system solutions and kits that fulfill this demand and provide components that are tailor-made to Soltecture modules. »
