PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Since its start, SOLARIG's activities have been focused on the investment, promotion and operation of solar photovoltaic energy parks and projects on a turnkey basis.

In the near future, SOLARIG expects to become, through the implementation of its ambitious Strategic Plan, one of the major international Independent Power Producers from photovoltaic sources, being able to offer all the products and services of the solar photovoltaic value chain, from silicon-based components and power generation solar PV systems to all the services related to the global management of these systems.

SOLARIG has already opened offices in Malta, Greece, France and also in China where the company produces photovoltaic cells and modules.
