PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Belletech Corporation is an automotive supplier with international affiliations dedicated to supplying the highest quality parts in the industry. Sophisticated robotics and integrated systems are used in the production of automotive glass assemblies, component subassemblies, and plastic injection molded parts.

Automotive Glass Assemblies

Over the past 19 years, Belletech has assembled complete automotive window systems for one of the world's leading automotive manufacturers. Belletech has proven that it has the skill to integrate the design and manufacturing components of a wide variety of global companies and deliver the highest quality products on a just-in-time basis.

Belletech works with its customers to insure the best possible fit and design for sunroofs, door glass, front windshields, and rear backlites. Our unique processes incorporate the latest technologies for installation and testing of terminals used for navigation, RF reception and backlite heating.
