PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

The Safety Glass Forum of India is a consortium of Indian architectural glass manufacturers who share a common goal in the education of the general public on the safety uses of glass. The forum comes together to discuss and review trends in the industry as well as keep consumers and suppliers informed about the latest news from time to time. Its formation represents a milestone development for the glass industry. With the formation of the SGFI, the glass industry has an "umbrella" body to represent its interests.
