PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

BRUGG Pipesystems – System Expertise That Goes One Step Further BRUGG Pipesystems develops and markets efficient and reliable systems to transport fluids, gases and heat. Our activities focus on several areas: Local and District Heating/District Cooling, Industry, Filling Stations and System Packages for applications in the renewable energy sector. Thanks to our comprehensive offering of flexible and rigid metal and plastic pipe systems backed up by a wide range of services, our company is positioned as a credible and reliable partner for discriminating industrial and public sector customers. BRUGG Pipesystems has its own engineering department and its own excellently trained installation teams. These assets enable the company to implement integrated system solutions that are in particular demand from the industrial sector. BRUGG Pipesystems manufactures at three locations and markets its products across the globe. The company is part of the international Brugg Group.
