TWIC – THE WAFER INSPECTION COMPANY The company HILKER and Partner GmbH with headquarters in Stuttgart, offers image- processing components, systems and solutions for various applications and requirements since more than 14 years. The company has a strong national and international orientation, with representatives in all major markets worldwide. We are maintaining a long-term relationship with a well-known and reliable German image processing company. In May 2008 HILKER and Partner GmbH extended its portfolio with products and solutions for the inspection of wafers, solar cells and PV modules. The new branch forms TWIC. TWIC currently has 10 employees. TWIC is open for new challenges and has already implemented new technologies in the field of wafer and solar inspection. Our commitment is our strategy. Innovative solutions are our strength. Whether in the traditionally important domestic and European markets, or in the emerging markets of Eastern Europe and Asia - we see ourselves as a competent and intelligent partner in solving visual inspection problems. TWIC stands for reliability as well as for clever, cost-effective systems and solutions in PV quality control and manufacturing.
