PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Parabel is a manufacturer and provider of solar power systems. The company has been involved with renewable energy technology since 1992 and, in the field of photovoltaics, specialises in thin-film technology. Our expertise and product range encompass both flexible and glass modules. Our own specially developed adhesive system makes it easy to retrofit solar power systems irrespective of the material used for the roof cladding. Parabel offers industrial and commercial customers comprehensive solar power solutions for large-scale roof surfaces. In the field of project development, Parabel focuses on the Europe market, and has its own subsidiaries in Spain and Italy.
