PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Photovoltaic plants throughout the world have been using our modules since 1979, for 30 years now! With our pioneering manufacturing process, we convert the silicon, guarantee supplies, and manage the manufacturing quality and turnaround times. Research and innovation are a main focus for our 850 staff and our production capabilities are constantly increasing. With our expertise in assembly, we can design all-encompassing photovoltaic power production solutions, from technical systems definition right up to the delivery of turnkey projects. Draw on the skills of a leading market player, ready at your service.
