PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

The core business of SolarNext is the development and commercialisation of standardised „solar cooling kits“, as well as the realisation of custom-made solar cooling systems for private, commercial, and industrial applications. The product portfolio includes ad- and absorption machines within a cooling performance range of 7.5 to 50 kW (up to several MW in the projects business), as well as a system controller for simple or complex thermodynamic systems. SolarNext has realised numerous solar cooling systems worldwide.
