PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

The core competence of Sunways AG is the development and manufacture of innovative, high-quality products for the generation of electricity from solar energy (photovoltaics). With silicon-based solar cells, inverters and modules, Sunways offers the components of the solar value-added chain that are of major importance to operators of photovoltaic systems: the quality and efficiency rates of these products are crucial to the yield of the photovoltaic system and make it an attractive investment for the operator.
