PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Innovative technology, ideal service and reliability – our clients in the PV sector and in the industry say that these are our strengths. As a future-orientated company with many years of experience in the photovoltaic, we can offer know-how and a comprehensive range of services. This makes us your competent partner who knows the requirements and the problems. Hence, we can offer economic solutions, which are also individually developed for you, if required. VM Edelstahltechnik has a well-sorted range of products for mounting accessories, in order to be able to perform as your competent partner. Our range of products includes amongst others mounting profiles, triangles, roof hooks, and clamps for solar and solar heat modules, hammer-headed screws, theft protections, twist protections and threaded plates.
