We had made OEM Production for ISOVER,HANSOL,ISOERM And IZOCAM before. Now we have our own brand ISOKING.Our products are popular due to the high quality and competitive price all over the world.

ISOKINGTM Glass Wool Insulation Blanket Overview:

ISOKINGTM complete glass wool production lines employing latest-generation technology to manufacture boards, rolled blankets and pipes for residential and industrial thermal and acoustic insulation needs, in compliance with the top international standards (EN, DIN, ASTM).

At the system HOT END, the raw materials are dosed, mixed, melted, fiberized, impregnated with a special binder and formed into a primitive mat of very fine fiber glass. Continuous conveyors transport the mat to the COLD END of the plant for binder polymerization. The product is then cut to shape and packed for shipping.

All ISOKINGTM lines comply with the latest international environmental regulations.
