PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Shanghai DIBO is a professional engineering company providing industry refractory furnace repairs. The repairs can be carried out from the inside of the furnace without shut-down and when it is operating, damaged bricks can be restored, furnace structures can be reinstalled. Therefore, furnace life can reach to a longer goal. These provide optimum solutions for the continuing operated industrial life. The repairs involve glass furnaces and metallurgical coke ovens. Shanghai DIBO has successfully repaired many furnaces, mostly extended their life, and avoided early shut-down and production losses.
