Solar panels French manufacturer

SILLIA Energie is a French industrialist. The company has developed a strong attachment to values such as product quality and initiative; with complete dedication to customer satisfaction.

Bound to the group of electronics ELVIA PCB, SILLIA Energie has built its expertise and production policy upon methods used to fulfil Aerospace customers' requirements. SILLIA Energie applies this experience to production of Photovoltaic modules, an initiative directly derived from those used in aeronautics by our group.

Today, as a result of mutual trust with our investors and absolute commitment to manufacturing quality, the company is able to supply high quality products, with 10-year warranty and complete traceability.
